It's pretty cool to eat and drink on rooftops. Views!

It's just starting to get warm, and so it's time to check out some of the best rooftop bars and restaurants in NYC. Some haven't opened for the season, some are ready for guests now. Enjoy and don't forget to take a sky-high selfie.

Cantina Rooftop (reopening April 22)

Tequila cocktails, mezcal, dancing and "modern Mexican cuisine" are promised at Cantina Rooftop. Add sweeping views to the mix and you're sure to have a fun-filled evening above Hell's Kitchen.
