

Date: April 22, 2016

Unique visitors: 2,777,583

Sensible Socialite on the Scene for Best of Spring

The weather is warming up and the season is popping with all sorts of hot events.

In Midwest, Cantina Rooftop (located atop Stage 48 – 605 W. 48th Street) re-opened to a fabulous reception for the season. The amazing restaurant features an innovative modern Mexican dinner menu and expertly crafted cocktails, with a focus on Tequila and Mezcal. The rooftop will offer daily food and drink specials Tuesday – Friday from 5pm-8pm.

Nightlife industry veteran Pedro Zamora is the creative force that has created a space that fuses together all of the components of a perfect venue a live performance that rivals major concert halls, a high-octane nightclub and premiere dining destination.