

Date: June 5th, 2016

Unique visitors: 40,826

Summer in the City with Rooftop Pub Crawl

Summer is finally here and that means in New York City time to hit the roofs. Rooftop Bar Crawl is back for the season and a big hit with attendees.

This last weekend the organization hit up Midtown for a crawl that included amazing views and drink special's at such hot-spots as The Attic (251 W. 48th St), Cantina Rooftop (605 W. 48th St), Hudson Terrace (621 W. 46th St), The Monarch (71 W. 35th St), Sky Room (330 W. 40th St).

The vibe of the crawl is fun and embracing. You can come alone and mingle, or come with a group to help introduce to others. From start to finish the event is well-organized and non-stressful. Before the event starts you receive a well-rounded email that includes times of each locations, prices for drink specials, and information about transportation (which will be in shuttle buses or cars pending on the size of the party).

Tickets start at $45 and get guests express entry to three rooftops on the crawl, one complimentary cocktail at your first or second stop and exclusive cocktail specials throughout the night. The tour stops are each lively and house great music from DJs. You can simply sit and sip your drink, or get up and dance the night away.

And the best part is that Rooftop Bar Crawl has partnered with the Food Bank For New York and for every ticket purchased, they will donate 5 meals to those in need.

Upcoming events include such fun times as: Rosé Wine August 11 – Rooftop TBD; Rooftop Cigar event August 4th Super Nova Novotel Hotel; Boats and Smoke – Scotch and Cigar cruise (Tentative dates 7/20 and September TBD); Comic Crawl Oct 6th-8th (Costume event); Brooklyn Rooftop Crawl – July (Date TBD); Queens Rooftop Crawl – August (Date TBD).

For more information visit www.rooftopcrawl.com. It is fun time not to miss this summer.